JUST BRIEFLY

The Australian Soccer Council will send its Secretary, Mr. Roy Druery, to Switzerland, to appeal against the suspension of the Austrian players in Sydney. He will argue that the players are legitimate migrants, who came here in conformation with Australia's national policy. Mr. Druery will also seek to establish F.I.F.A. policy with regard to future migrant players.

The trooper at Olympic Park was on the job but a bit puzzled last Sunday just after full time was signalled in the Italy-Australia match. .Pepe Cubero had scored the equaliser a minute before, and was chasing the ball outside the touchline when the whistle was blown, and he immediately disappeared in the centre of a mob of appreciative fans. The trooper was reassured when Pepe reappeared high on the shoulders of Italy's cheering supporters. Pepe scored the decider, too—from a penalty kick during extra time.

★ ★ ★

Few people in the stand saw the reason for that penalty kick, by the way. Quipped Mr. Sam Delves, N.S.W. Delegate to the Australian Soccer Council: "Must have been awarded under a new rule."

★ ★ ★

After his business with F.I.F.A. is concluded, Roy Druery will visit Italy with the intention of starting negotiations for an Italian team to tour Australia next year. Everbody hopes this will lead to a visit by an Italian First Division team.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Bill Thomas, Chairman of the V.A.S.F.A., is back on the job after long-service leave from his bread-and-butter business. About time the soccer council voted him another long-service leave for his 30 years of service to soccer.

★ ★ ★

The Australian body has decided that it will send an Australian team on a round-the-world tour in 1961. It is felt that many countries to whom we have played host will grant a reciprocal visit on terms which will ensure that the trip will pay for itself.

AUSTRALIA OUT OF OLYMPICS

Australia will withdraw its entry from the 1960 Olympic Games Soccer Tournament.

This was decided at last week's meeting of the Australian Soccer Association.

The nett cost of the qualifying rounds, plus the trip to Rome if Australia qualified, could be in excess of £15,000, a figure far beyond Australia's capacity to pay.

MELBOURNE GOES CLOSE IN CUP

Leads Wilhelmina 2-0 After 12 Minutes

Melbourne gave Wilhelmina and the fans a shock in last week's Dockerty Cup quarter-final when the under-dog led 1-0 after 45 seconds, 2-0 at 12 minutes, and 2-1 at the interval.

Eventually, however, Wilhelmina's weight, experience, and stamina helped the Dutchmen to take the initiative in the second half and win 3-2.

Lighter, faster, and using neat ball control in clever short-passing movements, the Hungarians penetrated Wilhelmina's penalty area almost at will in the first 45 minutes, but their engine ran out of fuel in the later stages of the game.

Highlights of the match were the field coverage and leadership of Bors and his solo goal for Melbourne in which he beat four defenders and netted from an "impossible" angle, and the keeping of Williamson, who beat many of the Dutchmen's scoring shots in the torrid second half.

George Cross and Hakoah beat Moreland and Box Hill to make the semi-finals, but J.U.S.T. and Juventus drew 1-1 after extra time, and their match will be replayed next week.

WHO WILL BE DROPPED FROM TOP LEAGUE?

All eyes will be on Footscray-J.U.S.T. and Box Hill - Geelong matches in today's final round of the State League's home-and-away matches.

Out of these two fixtures will emerge the hapless club which must accompany Yarra Park down to the First Division.

Box Hill's form, particularly in its Cup engagement with Hakoah last week, favours the side to beat Geelong at Wembley Park, and that would settle the issue—with Geelong the relegation victim.

But wins by Geelong and Footscray would doom Box Hill, and a draw at Box Hill with a loss by Footscray would send Footscray tumbling down.

All considered, a majority of the signs point to the survival of Box Hill and Footscray.

The Junior Committee will now accept entries for the 1960 Junior Competitions in Under 12, 14, 16 and 18 age groups and it is proposed to form an Under 10 age group competition, providing enough entries are received. It is also proposed to form district competitions in the lower age groups to avoid excessive travelling.

Any club intending to enter teams for the 1960 season are requested to contact the Junior Secretary, J. P. Threlgall, 3 Ferguson Street, Sunshine, W.20, or Mr. Len. Young, Olympic Park (BM 5309) between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. on week days.

APPEAL DISMISSED

FIORENTINA'S appeal to the State Council against a decision of the Investigation and Disciplinary Committee was dismissed last Monday night. The Committee had altered the result of a match (Fiorentina 2, Collingwood 1) to a draw when evidence revealed that the referee had allowed the winning goal to be scored from a dead ball.

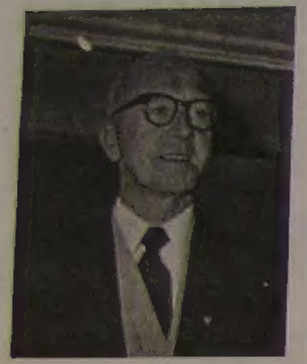
SCOTLAND FAVORITE FOR WORLD CUP

Meets Croatia In Semi This Sunday



A. Balish.

Scotland meets Croatia, suprise conqueror of Hungary and Yugoslavia, in a semi-final this week-end, and the winner will face Italy in the Final.

Mr. Albert Balish, team manager of Scotland since 1950, is confident that his team will repeat its 1950-1951 successes to win the Laidlaw World Cup this year.

Both of last week's games had the fans on their toes for over three hours.

There was little between Croatia and Yugoslavia during their tense thriller on the field, and there was only one goal between them at the finish.

Then Australia rocked Italy and the fans to lead 2-0 well into the second half.

In the last 15 minutes, however, an all-out effort by the Italians breached the Aussies' defence to tie the score—the equaliser coming from Cubero's header in the last minute—and a penalty kick during extra time won the tie for Italy 3-2.

Cubero and Bottari were best for Italy, and Dal Mannering shone for Australia between the sticks.

Scotland's Team

Scotland's team for Sunday looks too powerful for the Croatia side that was seen three times at Olympic Park, and if it wins as expected, will remain favourite against Italy in the Final.

The team will be selected from the following:

HILTON	BALISH
JACK	BELL
ALEXANDER	COOK
WEMYSS	BEATTIE
McNEILL	BLACKLEY
THOMAS	COPELAND
BERRY	RIACH
GLENNIE	POLLOCK
LAWRIE

METROPOLITAN LEAGUES

FIRST DIVISION NORTH

Hellenic's failure against Corio last week cost the club its second demotion in two successive seasons.

Preston still leads the League, and hot contenders Lions and Croatia have yet to meet each other twice.

To topple Preston for the pennant and promotion, Croatia must win both matches, and the Lions must win one and draw one. There'll be no "beg pardons" as these two battle to cop the big prizes.

FIRST DIVISION SOUTH

Melbourne has both the pennant and promotion in the bag, and will snuff out all "ifs" by beating South Yarra today.

Victoria Police has qualified for relegation, and the remaining interest lies in whether Park Rangers can win one of its two remaining matches against Dandenong.

If it can and does, the bone will be pointed at Prahran to join Victoria Police in the downward move.

SECOND DIVISION NORTH

Fiorentina and Moonee Ponds have earned promotion, and I.C.I. and Heidelberg are marked down for relegation.

Moonee Ponds and Fiorentina meet today in the match that will decide premiership of the league.

SECOND DIVISION SOUTH

The surprise defeat of Frankston by Rosebud last week cost Frankston its last chance of promotion, which now goes to Austria and pennant winner Sandringham.

Croydon's demotion is settled, and today's matches will decide whether its running mate is to be Moorabbin City or Ferntree Gully.

JUNIOR NOTES

Victoria Under 18 side easily defeated New South Wales in a match studded with good play. Victoria was clearly superior in most positions and certainly well in front in positional play. New South Wales scored first and Victoria replied with three goals, one of which was scored by a New South Wales defender.

At South Melbourne ground on Sunday, Victoria again repeated their win of Saturday, after being one down early in the first half, Culbard 2, Jordan 2 and Perkins made the score 5 goals to 2, New South Wales scoring in the second half from a penalty. Both teams played fast, rugged and at times skilful soccer but Victoria appeared to be faster to the ball. Mr. J. Paul presented the Brackenbury Trophy to Victoria, expressing a hope that N.S.W. would win the trophy next season.
